

Ariel Sergio Davidoff

Ariel is an independent non-executive Director and a Board Member of Marcuard Heritage AG.

Career

Ariel is active in business for more than 40 years, since 2020 he is self-employed as a partner of a law firm and a board member of selected companies. In his employed career, he was last on the executive board of a major Swiss bank and before that, CEO of a successful bank in Liechtenstein. At the law firm, Ariel's clients are entrepreneurs, their companies and families, mainly from the UK, US, Switzerland, Monaco and Poland as well as the Czech Republic. In his practice, he focuses on regulatory law, capital market law, M&A transactions, licences, governmental relations but also relocation and succession planning.

Education & Languages

A business economist with a doctorate, Ariel also has a Master of Laws (LL.M.) of the University of Zurich in Business Law and a STEP qualification. Ariel is fluent in German, English, French, conversational in Italian and Russian.
