

Alexis Xenophontos

Alexis Xenophontos is the CEO and member of the Board of Directors of Marcuard Heritage (Europe) Limited.

Career

Alexis has worked in the Financial Services sector since 1991.

Prior to Marcuard Heritage, Alexis held the position of global COO for Barclays Wealth Investments & Products Office based out of London.

The above was following 8 years prior experience with UBS Global Wealth Management (based between London and Zurich) where he held the position of Head of Quality Assurance and Risk Management of their Portfolio Strategy and Construction team, which covered all main Global Investment Management offerings. He was a member of various Group Investment Committees covering both Relative and Absolute return product groups.

Prior to UBS, Alexis had worked as a Trader for syndicated loans and trade finance paper with a London-listed financial boutique, as a Chartered Accountant and Auditor for 6 years with firms such as Coopers & Lybrand (now PWC) covering the Financial Services Sector and as a Regulatory Advisor in Debt Capital Markets at the London Stock Exchange.

Education & Languages

Alexis is a Mechanical Engineering Graduate (BEng) of the Imperial College of Science, Technology and Medicine, London and an Associate of the City & Guilds Institute (ACGI). He trained and qualified as a Chartered Accountant (ACA) with the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW) and holds a Master's in Business Administration (MBA) from INSEAD, Fontainebleau, France.

In addition, Alexis obtained the following qualifications:

- Fellow Chartered Accountant (FCA) and Business and Finance Professional (BFP) with the ICAEW;
- Trust and Estate Practitioner (TEP) with the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP);
- Ministry of Finance, Cyprus – Advanced Certificate Holder covering: Portfolio Management; Investment Advice; Reception and Transmission of orders in financial instruments;

He is fluent in English and Greek.
